FOR FURTHER THOUGHT:

1. What is something that you have been or currently are devoted to? What was the motivation behind your devotion? How did that devotion impact your time, attention, and priorities? What was the fruit/outcome of your devotion?
2. Why is a devotion to God's Word so vital for the life of the Christian? How has learning from God's Word impacted your own life? What are the benefits of studying God's Word together in a small group?
3. Name some of the ways that the early church's devotion to fellowship play out in Acts 2:42-47? How might a devotion to fellowship look today? What are some evidences of a devotion to fellowship that you have seen being lived out in your small group? What are some other ways that you might suggest?
4. What does it mean in Acts 2:44 that all who believed were together and had all things in common? What evidence in the book of Acts could you point to show that the author is not advocating for communism? (Acts 5:4; 12:12; 17:5) What do you think Luke was pointing to?
5. Read Hebrews 3:12-13 and 10:19-25. How does a devotion to God's Word, fellowship, and prayer help cultivate and nurture the individual believer? How does that play out differently in a small group verses Sunday morning worship? What are some ways that you can help other believers in your group?
