

Grace for Life Galatians 2:11-21

1. On your worst day, you are not beyond the _____ of God's grace, and on your best day, you are not beyond the _____ of God's grace.

2. The same grace that saved us also sustains us.

3. Legalism may seem noble, but it's misguided and undermines the cross of Christ.

Grace for Life

Galatians 2:11-21

FOR FURTHER THOUGHT AND SMALL GROUP STUDY:

1. Pastor Ken described two very different days: the perfect good day and the perfect bad day. Which day would you prefer to be coming out of when a friend asks you about your faith? Why?
2. Why was Peter's action hypocritical (v13)? Can you think of a time when you were hypocritical in not acting on what you know to be true?
3. Martin Luther said we need to preach the Law "unto despair" before we preach the Gospel. Why might that be so?
4. How are we tempted to earn God's favor? What's wrong with that?
5. Read Philippians 3:2-11. Why did Paul need to come to the point of seeing his own "righteousness" as a liability rather than an asset?
6. If grace were fully operational in your life, what would be different? (Would you be more transparent? More bold? More forgiving? More joyful?) How can you take a step toward that difference this week?
7. If our behavior doesn't earn our salvation, why would it matter how we live? See Galatians 2:20, also Romans 6:1-4.
