

A People of Fear And Love Deuteronomy 10:12-22

Main Point: The people of God love and fear God...

I. alone (vs. 12-14, 17)

II. because against all expectations we have and will be faithfully loved forever
(vs 15, 21-22)

III. and then act like it (vs 12, 16, 19-21)

IV. and then love people (vs. 18-19)

A People of Fear And Love Deuteronomy 10:12-22

Main Point: The people of God love and fear God...

I. alone (vs. 12-14, 17)

II. because against all expectations we have and will be faithfully loved forever
(vs 15, 21-22)

III. and then act like it (vs 12, 16, 19-21)

IV. and then love people (vs. 18-19)

A People of Fear And Love Deuteronomy 10:12-22

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What does the word “Deuteronomy” mean? What does that have to do with Moses’ sermon to the people of Israel?
2. Where are the places this passage talks about God’s sovereignty, power, authority, and justice?
3. When Moses says, “Be no longer stubborn” what is he referring to?
4. Based on verse 16, what can we say about the act of circumcision?
5. Why does God command love particularly towards the fatherless and widows? How about towards sojourners?
6. How do you feel about Moses commanding the people of Israel to feel emotions?
7. Based on this passage, who is a recipient of God’s love? Based on this passage, who deserves God’s love?
8. What great and terrifying things has God done for you that your eyes have seen?

A People of Fear And Love Deuteronomy 10:12-22

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What does the word “Deuteronomy” mean? What does that have to do with Moses’ sermon to the people of Israel?
2. Where are the places this passage talks about God’s sovereignty, power, authority, and justice?
3. When Moses says, “Be no longer stubborn” what is he referring to?
4. Based on verse 16, what can we say about the act of circumcision?
5. Why does God command love particularly towards the fatherless and widows? How about towards sojourners?
6. How do you feel about Moses commanding the people of Israel to feel emotions?
7. Based on this passage, who is a recipient of God’s love? Based on this passage, who deserves God’s love?
8. What great and terrifying things has God done for you that your eyes have seen?